IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE FOR RAJASTHAN
BENCH AT JAIPUR
S.B. CIVIL WRIT PETITION NO.8228/06
Devi Charan Vs. The District Judge, Dholpur & Anr.

Date of order : 12/12/2007.

HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MOHAMMAD RAFIQ

Shri D.K. Garg for the petitioner.

******

The petitioner has also filed the election petition against the respondent who was elected as Sarpanch. The petitioner was the candidate who secured the second highest votes in the election.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that this writ petition has been filed to challenge the finding on issue no.1, which has been decided partially in his favour but partially against him.

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the finding on issue no.1, I find that the learned District Judge has given a reasoned order by discussing the pros and cons of the evidence recorded by either side. Even otherwise the decision of election petition is culminated in response thereof thus setting aside the election of respondent no.2.

In the circumstances, I do not find any merit in this writ petition.

The writ petition is dismissed.
